Blames 'Neglect' -

Answers Complaints On Town's Pickup

Supt. of Public Works Frank N. O'Hara appeared at the Selectmen's meeting Monday night in answer to the complaints over the sanitary landfill and refuse collections.

O'Hara brought with him some of the complaints that he had received from that day about collections. They were about the pickup of garbage, in particular.

In response to these, O'Hara went through the list, individually, giving reasons for the missing of certain houses. Most letters were in the same vein and O'Hara blamed the people themselves for "neglect," leading to a problem for the pickup men, some hired suddenly.

O'Hara stressed that some houses were definite skips because the people had covered up the garbage can so that it could not be found. In one case a boat was covering the container, he said. Sidewalks were not shoveled clear of snow.

As for the dump not being covered properly, two men are there from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. every day and a man is on the job Saturday and Sunday, O'Hara stated.

As for new precautions, Mr. O'Hara hopes to have the Tree Dept. "sanatize" the area to get rid of the disturbance by seagulls. The sanitizing is not a poison that can harm the residents around the dump but rather an irritant for the throats of birds and small animals.

Selectman Saul reiterated that a closer eye should be kept on the dump. "If necessary keep the foreman on the job and pay him overtime," was his comment.

AN AMBULANCE sent out on a call became surrounded by parked cars and was forced to call a police ambulance to make the call.

Mgr. Wants Used Loader

Town Manager Edward Monahan has requested the Selectmen to request the Finance Committee for $1200 to buy a used Barber Greene snowloader.

The money is to be obtained from the reserve account to Budget 33A "Highways-Capital Outlay". The seller of the snow loader is C. N. Wood of Arsenal st. in Watertown.

Mr. Wood purchased the snow loader in a "trade-in" with Marlboro in connection with the latter's purchase of a "Sicard Blower" estimated around $17,000.

According to Supt. Francis N. O'Hara of the Public Works Dept. who has examined it, the belt is brand new, the running gear and motor are in good shape, and the cutting edges and teeth are practically new.

Supt. O'Hara said that it is a better piece of equipment than a substantially similar Barber Greene snow loader the Town bought for $1,000 five years ago. This has given us good service since its acquisition.

The Town Manager and Supt. are in agreement that the snow loader can be operated advantageously in the best interests of the Town of Arlington.

Ethics Talk Topic

"Private Profit from Public Business" will be the subject of a talk by Edward W. Brooke, chairman of the Boston Finance Commission, before the Arlington Heights Men's club of the Park Avenue Congregational church next Wednesday evening, Jan. 17, at 8 p.m.

As chairman of the Boston Finance Commission, Brooke has spearheaded a number of investigations into alleged unethical contract letting practices and has been a central figure in the now famous T.V. bookie controversy.

He was the Republican candidate for Sec. of State in 1960 and has been mentioned as his party's standard bearer in this year's gubernatorial race.

The meeting, to be held in the Parish hall, will be preceded by a roast beef dinner at 6:30.

Called 'Tragedy' -

Sup't Of Schools Pleads For Speed

Exposure of children to hazardous conditions going to and from school is one of the prominent complaints lodged by Supt. of Schools, Bert Roens, against the architect and contractor for the Stratton school, whose slow erection of the building is termed a tragedy by the superintendent.

In a letter to Daniel C. Whitney, chairman of Stratton School Building Comm., Dr. Roens said that he knows that the Building Comm. has certain limitations to the amount of coercion that it can exert, and he realizes extenuating circumstances such as an excessively cold winter.

Children are not able to enter the building until permits are granted by the DPS. These will not be given until the burned-out motor of the vent fan is replaced and boilers are in proper working condition.

Dr. Roens offers the following suggestions for a meeting with the architect and contractor: a) set Feb. 5, 1962 as the date of occupancy, b) notify the Architect and Contractor that any minor items on any of the punch lists not completed by this date, must be postponed to the summer and c) no further payments shall be made until the building is totally completed to the satisfaction of your committee.

THREE PEOPLE were reported taken to Symmes hospital as a result of slipping on the ice over the weekend.

AN OVERHEATED motor in a washing machine was the culprit that set off an alarm on Fountain rd.

Board Changes Location Of Site

In a sudden change, the School Committee voted Monday night to put an addition to house 9th graders at the rear of the High school, along Mill Brook drive. Between 900 and 900 pupils will be located there.

The special meeting was a joint one with the School Survey Committee. A joint article asking for $1,100,000 from the Town Meeting will be filed.

Previously, the most favored plan was to put the wing in the front, running along Schouler ct. toward Massachusetts ave.

Other alternates under consideration were a new Junior High North (near Symmes hospital) and an addition to either Junior High West or the Industrial Arts schools.

The sudden switch at the special meeting came after the Committee had eliminated all plans, except the addition to the A.H.S.

New Plan Shown
It was then that Supt. of Schools Bert Roens presented the Mill Brook drive site. At his request the architects - Korslund, Le-Normand and Quann, Inc. - presented a rough draft on the new location. Both Korslund and Quann were present.

A few weeks ago in the Arlington Advocate there appeared an editorial quoting the School Survey Committee as proposing another wing on the high school running along Schouler court.

They also said some of the School Committee members were vehemently opposed. And that brings back some fond and not so fond memories.

Today we talk of urban renewal in many communities. It's a new word being used in place of eminent domain, or just razing homes and buildings. But a newly used word or not, it has been going on for years and years.

To many citizens the building of Arlington High school was the aftermath of many heated Town Meetings. A gentleman by the name of Arthur Birch first proposed the Schouler court site. The high school at that time was on Academy st.

Running along Schouler court at that time were eight homes, housing eleven families with a population of over 50 adults and children. In the rear of these homes was what was known as the Town dump. And the Town used it as such until the high school was built.

The word vehement, as used above for the opposition of some of our present School Committee members is like a devout prayer compared to the language used by the opposition to Mr. Birch's plan. But he was a stubborn Englishman, with a real English accent, and he never gave up. The fact that eight homes were torn down, over 50 people moved, and the high school has been standing there since the first class entered in 1915, will give the folks an idea who won. Later Mr. Birch was elected to the Board of Public Works.

Bear in mind, these eight homes were not shacks, but good substantial residences, similar to the three houses still standing on the opposite side of Schouler court.

The Town Meeting at that time was not the limited form we see now, and Town Hall was jammed at every session. The first time Mr. Birch showed

Locals Lose Two

Despite a 35-point outburst by top scorer Bill Grannan, Arlington succumbed to Watertown, 71-68, Friday at Arlington. Right Guard Grannan scored 12 times from the floor and hit on 11 free throws to accumulate 35 points.

Offsetting the scoring of Grannan were the center, Claffee, 25 points and left forward, Pouliot, with 18. Also hitting for double figures in the Arlington attack were Bob Keefe and Vin Govoni with ten apiece. Arlington was in the game up to the final whistle, losing by three.

The Hoopers lost their second in a row dropping one to Rindge Tech, 76-41, Tuesday, at Arlington.

Bill Grannan again was the big gun for the locals. Grannan came up with seven field goals and five free throws for 19 points. He was a bright spot in the game.

Rindge Tech appears to be the class of the Suburban League. Their center, Larry Stead is 6-5 and scored 26 points. The big right forward for Rindge, George Feehan, scored 12. Rindge controlled the boards and completely outclassed a fighting Arlington team after the first period. Superior height forecast the net result.

Ken Nagle, Jim Driscoll and Vin Govoni contributed six apiece.

Arlington, overpowering a previously undefeated No. Quincy track team, checked up its first win in two outings in a 40-31 romp, Saturday, at the 101st Infantry Armory.

Arlington took seven of a possible nine first places. They backed these up with two seconds and five thirds.

Among the wins was the second fastest clocking of the day for the mile in all divisions by Clyde Ward, 4:53.3s.

Arlington lowered its own Division II standard in the two lap relay from 2:59 to 2:57.8s with a quartet of Bill Lewis, Clyde Ward, Dave Walsh and Bob Kelley. For a while it was a record for all divisions but Newton later lowered it to 2:57.2s.

Other winners for Arlington were Bill Lewis in the 300 with a 37.3s clocking, Bob Kelley, 600, 1:24.2s, Pete Fairchild, 1000, 2:39, Bob Goodenough, high jump, 5 ft. 7 in. and Dennis Kallias in the shot put with a heave of 40 ft. 6 in.

Lewis and Kelley lowered their times from previous wins against Natick in their respective events. Bob Goodenough increased his height in the high jump one inch to 5 ft. 7 in. and also, place second in the hurdles.

In contrast to the meet with Natick when Arlington notched six firsts but did not have the reserve strength, this week Arlington showed strength in all phases.

In other action favorites Natick and Belmont won. Natick defeated Somerville, 53-24, and Belmont beat Watertown, 44-33.

IN ALL ALONE only to be denied by the flashing left glove of Arlington goalie, Joe Allosso, is this unidentified Waltham player. Arlington downed Waltham, 5-1, as Allosso allowed only his second goal in the last four games. Allan Kierstead and another local are shown in background.

St. Agnes Hockey

St. Agnes Varsity Hockey team broke all records for playing three games within 36 hours in all parts of Boston.

To start their day off and also the last day of 1961, they played in Boston in a Catholic Youth League game at the Boston Arena. Sunday, they played St. Adelbert's of Hyde Park and tied 5-5.

At 5 p.m. they played B.C. High varsity tying 2-2, at Lynn Arena, which was the first game of three in New Year's Hockey festival.

On Jan. 1, the second annual Skatarama took place at the Boston Skating club. The St. Agnes team beat Christopher Columbus 3-1. St. Agnes goals were scored by Paul Shea, Paul Smith, and Gilbert Quinn.

J.V.'s Tie, 4-4
Dec. 29, the St. Agnes junior varsity played Immaculate Conception of Everett at the M.D.C. rink in Revere. One of the highlights of the game was the outstanding team work in trying to by-pass this tie. Mugsy Moran was the star scorer getting two goals. Brian McGahan and John Muldoon each scored.

AHS Hockey Rolls Along

Times have not changed the great reputation that Arlington has earned for being a top hockey vicinity.

Currently Arlington is in second place in the GBI with only two losses. Back in 1927, Arlington was one of the top teams in the Suburban League. With a record of three wins and one loss, the Arlington team was voted one of the four best teams in the Suburban loop. It was invited to play in a championship series.

The star of that team was capt. Channing Hilliard who had five goals to his credit. Hilliard was considered one of the fastest skaters of his time and was the center on the first line.

The tide of the Arlington winning pattern may have remained unchanged up to this date but the rules have certainly been altered. Back in 1927 one man would carry the puck behind his net and then start the rush up the ice. He would pick up his wings who would be waiting deep in their own territory. In this fashion they would streak down the ice.

Such a formation was necessary because the men had to be onside at all times. With such a center as Hilliard, a potent Arlington attack was the highlight of every game. It was a pretty sight to behold, as center Hilliard would streak down the ice picking up his wings and forming a solid line that swept towards the opposing net. The pretty pass was the key to the game then. This has not been changed.

Passing is the key to a good attack. But in contrast to the offside rule being able to be called at any point on the ice in 1927, current off-sides are called in designated areas. Blue lines separate the zones of play and a red line designates center ice. The long pass is a weapon in current use that was not able to be employed in 1927.

Checking is a vital cog in hockey. But especially was this so in times past. In the days of Hilliard, bodychecking was equal to that which is used in colleges today. Hilliard was one of the lightest men on skates but he was never really hit by a check due to the speed that he had. Still the checks were fast and made for more action on the ice.

Today we find hockey softened by the close calls of the referee. It is strictly a hands-off contest. Checks that would be legal in a college game are called for penalties under the high school system. Such a system has opened the offense but put a check on defense. Stick checking by the defense is prevalent in high school circles, today.

The length of tenure on the ice has also been altered in current years. From the three 12 minute periods of the past, three ten minute periods are used today.

The older brand of hockey appears the tougher of the types of hockey displayed, but anyone who thinks that it is soft should try it. Yes, Arlington hockey has changed in its appearance but the winning hockey habit goes on.

FID. HOUSE NOTES

A week ago yesterday, the Fidelity House 7 and 8 grade intramural basketball league played its 4th set of games. In a battle for first place the Knicks remained undefeated by squeaking past the Celtics, 37-32. Dave McAuliffe paced the losers by scoring 15 points.

In the second game Royals moved into a tie for second place with a forfeit victory over the Hawks, who were unable to field a full team.

CYO Basketball

Six St. Agnes CYO basketball teams began games last week. All teams will be playing league games through the middle of Feb. At 7 p.m. on Jan. 3, St. Agnes Cadets started their league schedule against St. Camillus at Fidelity House. It was a close game all the way, but St. Camillus came out victorious 22 to 19. Frank Kerwin was high scorer for St. Agnes with 8 points. Bob Green played a good game and had five.

INTRA-MURALS

Jan. 3, the Fidelity House Intra-Mural Hockey League played their third set of games.

The Canadiens and Maple Leafs played first. It proved to be a see-saw game from start to finish. Frank Callahan was the spark plug on the Canadiens scoring all three goals.

Grannan and Powers scored for the Maple Leafs in the first and second periods, with Bob Heavren tying it up 9:10 of the third. Then with 30 seconds left in the game Heavren scored on a pass from Grannan to win the game.

Maple Leafs 4, Canadiens 3.
In the second game Bill Roycroft's Bruins continue on their winning streak of two straight.

Randy DePari kept up his fine work and scored twice for the Bruins. Bruins goal tender, Eddie Walsh is one of the youngest players in organized hockey and does a remarkable job.

Bruins 5, Rangers 2.

HOOPSTERS WIN 60-52

Sporting two men in double figures, Arlington rolled over Weymouth by a 60-52 score at Arlington Wednesday afternoon.

Bill Grannan led the locals with 20 points and Vin Govoni tallied 15. Grannan has become the big gun of the team after a slow start.

Six men figured in the scoring for Arlington. Besides Grannan and Govoni, Keefe got nine, Driscoll eight, Nagle six, and Scully two.

It was a well-rounded attack that outscored Weymouth in every period except the third. The game was close throughout and at no time could Arlington feel that it was in the bag. The locals now have a 3 win, one loss slate in the Suburban loop.

In other action, Rindge Tech downed Newton So., 94-51, Waltham topped Watertown, 51-43, and Camb. Latin nipped Newton, 44-43. Brookline, the only team that Arlington has lost to in Suburban play, took the measure of Brockton, 57-48.

Arlington Tops Waltham, 5-1

Behind the outstanding play of goalie, Joe Allosso, and the high scoring duo of Alan Kierstead and Peter Lax, Arlington romped over Waltham, 5-1, at the Arena, Saturday.

Combining the talents of Allosso with an offensive array sparked by veterans Kierstead and Lax, Arlington swamped Waltham over the last two periods. The first period was the only bright spot for Waltham in a rather foggy afternoon.

Waltham scored its one goal in the first period and walked off the ice with a one goal edge. However, the power of Arlington was not to be denied much longer as Alan Kierstead broke the scoring ice for Arlington at 2:03 of the second period.

The 1-1 tie was resolved but two minutes later, when co-captain Peter Lax made a beautiful solo dash the length of the ice to score the winning goal at 4:03. Bob Fredo scored later in the same session to give the locals a 3-1 edge after two periods.

Arlington continued to dominate the game in the third stanza coming up with two more goals. Dick DeCaprio found the range on a rebound of a Bob Carr shot. Ending the scoring was the man that opened it, co-captain Alan Kierstead.

With this margin the victory was insured for while Arlington was firing the Waltham nets with rubber, Arlington goalie Joe Allosso was playing an outstanding game in the nets for the Red and Gray. One play in particular found defenseman Kierstead caught and a Waltham skater coming in alone on Allosso. Allosso moved a bit out of the cage and scooped the puck out of the air to stymie this bid.

The win entrenched Arlington in the second slot of the GBI and kept them within three points of league-leading Newton, which beat Cambridge Latin, 1-0.

Newton downed Cambridge Latin on a Steve Colpitts goal. Medford moved to third with a 6-4 decision over Rindge Tech, and Brookline won its first game of the year defeating Somerville, 3-2.

St. Agnes Ties Again

By Kathy Carney
St. Agnes, still fighting for sole possession of second place, tied their brother occupant of that position, St. Anthony's of Allston, last Sunday afternoon in a Catholic Youth League game at the Boston Arena.

St. Agnes scored first with only two minutes of the game gone on a brilliant solo by Charlie Morgan.

Both teams settled down to some hard, tight hockey. Joe Kiernan played another dependable game in the nets for St. Agnes. He had 38 saves for the game.

St. Agnes plays St. Thomas next Sunday afternoon at the Arena. There is no admission for these games. Face off at 1:15.

Gratifying Results

The "Reward the Champs" drive was most gratifying. Once again, Arlington shows itself to be a community with a warm heart.

The Advocate was happy to join the thousands of well-wishers and contributors by donating a full page to list the major sponsors. As we said in a previous editorial, an actual bowl trip and game would be more romantic but not as sensible as a rewarding trip.

Bowl games of the high school level are hasty affairs. The players have little rest after the hard, regular season. They play the game a day or two after a long, exhausting trip — exhausting, particularly due to the excitement. And, a tired and over-anxious player is prone to injury. Only a few years ago a Red & Gray star was lost for the entire hockey season after breaking a leg in a post-season, all-star football game.

The "Champs" Committee members did an outstanding job and we congratulate them and, for them, we thank the many, many contributors and sponsors.

Any listing of names always has some unfortunate results. Some are usually omitted, mis-spelled, etc. The Advocate printed them as received from the Committee. The Committee, in turn, received them from many sources — over the phone, scribbled on scraps of paper and so on.

Also, it never was the intention of the Committee to publish all the names of those donating at the door-to-door canvass. This was an impossibility!

Again, congratulations to the "Champs", the Committee, sponsors and the warm-hearted contributors.

"Inflation" Is A Dirty Word

If a dollar had an average worth of 100 cents during the base period of 1935-39, it is now worth 46.6 cents. In 1953, however, the Government decided this span of reference on which the Consumer Price Index is based should be moved forward to 1947-1949. Calculated thus, the dollar is now worth 84.2 cents. But, the Budget Bureau has done it again.

By nudging the base period ahead another decade, with 1957-1959 period as par, the Government cost-of-living experts can demonstrate that as of last November we only paid $1.046 for a dollar's worth of hamburger or haberdashery.

This will no doubt prove a splendid tranquilizer and one that, as heretofore, was administered just as we were about to wake up.

But, it won't bring back the nickel cup of coffee!

Already A Menace

Impressed, perhaps, by Fidel's own insistence that he is, too, a Marxist, the US State Department has at long last made official by the issuance of a "white paper" the long-recognized fact that Castro's Cuba is the Communist staging area of the Western Hemisphere.

Next to our own, the Department revealed, the Fidelista armed forces are the largest on our side of the world. Estimated at from 260,000 to 400,000 men, equipped by the Soviet with MIG fighter planes, heavy artillery, heavy machine guns and automatic rifles, and trained by hundreds of Communist military advisors and technicians, Castro's army, navy, air force and militia now threaten the security of all American republics.

Furthermore, the report states, Castro's bully boys have publicly announced their intention of conducting

Fidel-type revolutions in all of these countries.

They are now, says the Department document, importing hundreds of dissident students, intellectuals, politicians and labor leaders for Communist indoctrination and training in sabotage and subversion, and who will be sent home to soften up their respective countries for the kill. Military aid from Russia and Red China is estimated at from $60 to $100 million.

The white paper was prepared in answer to the request of the Inter-American Peace Committee to all hemisphere governments for information on Cuban violation of human rights and the Cuban threat to peace.

It is encouraging to have this indication that the State Department knows what goes on. But we hope Washington is giving some high-level thought to what-do-we-do-about-it.

Letters To The Editor

To the editor,

As an avid Joe Ward supporter, I noticed with great interest that his campaign coordinator in Arlington last year, Charles Kent is seeking promotion from the School Committee to Selectman.

I know Kent must have worked hard, although unsuccessfully, for Ward, who I believe would have been a great Governor, at least a lot better than the present incumbent, Mr. Volpe.

Ward is a real Democrat, and if one can believe the Boston papers, he will be a candidate for Attorney General. I hope Charlie Kent will continue his support of Joe Ward whether or not he is personally successful in his own fight.

If we want Massachusetts to go for Ward and achieve real progress, we will support the party of Joe Ward and Charlie Kent, the Democratic party. Joe Ward for A.G.

Sincerely,
Jeremiah F. O'Shea

To the editor,
With all kinds of New Year's resolutions having been made, here's one that would be appropriate for the Metropolitan Transit Authority.

We, the MTA officers, drivers and starters hereby resolve to give worse service to the already harassed patrons of our overloaded line serving the Arlingtonites and their North Cambridge neighbors.

This is the lament of the weary commuters who are continually forced to support an outmoded transit system, which supposedly is established to furnish transportation for the suburbanites.

Very truly yours,
Frederick R. Chaffee

To the editor,

With the worst part of the winter ahead of us, here's hoping the T.M. or whoever is in charge of operation "Snow Plowing" will brief the numerous 10 dollars an hour truckers that they are hired to plow the streets and not to patrol them.

To see a big heavy plow go by with the blade up as if it were in a parade while there's four or five feet of deep snow between the narrow alleys and the curbing, frustrates at least one taxpayer, THIS ONE.

SUGGESTS ACTION

Dear Mr. Wood,
A few weeks ago I sat in at a Selectman's meeting on a Monday night. And you got up and inquired from the Selectmen what the possibilities were of establishing Arlington as the "Gateway to Freedom" and to be recognized as such. I believe that they were going to do something about this.

A few years back I was interested in such a cause. I suggested then that Arlington should be the "Birthplace of a Nation".

I believe that if enough people got behind this civic cause we can do something about it.

I have a few suggestions which I think would be a good start:

1. All outgoing mail have the words "Birthplace of a Nation" on the front envelope;
2. All local newspapers have a "by-line" on something of that nature;
3. A committee to be formed and take this issue to the proper authorities;

4. A commemorative stamp issued by the Post office;
5. Rubber stamp used by all business people here in Arlington.

I believe either one of these ideas would be good. If in any way I can be of some assistance to this cause please get in touch with me.

Sincerely yours,
Chris J. Cammarata

P.S. I have written letters to the President and Cong. Morse to see if they could do something about it.

To the editor,

On behalf of the Board of Directors, members and volunteer campaign workers of Greater Boston Association for Retarded Children, Inc., I wish to thank you for your support of our recent fund raising campaign.

We are all most appreciative of the space you devoted to the Greater Boston Appeal for the Child Alone... and our Annual Crusade Dinner in your newspaper.

Our gratitude reflects that of the 45,000 mentally retarded children in Greater Boston for whom we are providing services.

Sincerely yours,
John B. Hogan

To the editor,

John W. Bullock is among those seeking the office of Selectman in the March election.

Perhaps all the town meeting members including myself owe Mr. Bullock our thanks.

Last summer the possibility existed that every Town Meeting member would have to run in the March, 1962, election if they wished to serve in the Town Meeting.

A plan had been put before the Selectman which would have redrawn Arlington's precinct boundary lines so that every town meeting member would have to run for re-election.

And if a town meeting member found himself redistricted out of his former precinct — he would not have been able to run as a candidate for re-election.

Made aware of this redistricting plan, Bullock immediately initiated a petition against this proposal. Quietly, he mobilized a small group of citizens who went from door to door collecting several hundred signatures on a petition opposing the plan on the basis that it would inconvenience many hundreds of voters and, in addition, would have denied the precincts of many able Town Meeting Members.

As a result of Bullock's alert action, it is my belief that the Board of Selectmen gave more extensive consideration to the redistricting plan than they otherwise would have done.

The redistricting plan was finally postponed indefinitely.

Speaking for myself and as a Town Meeting Member, John Bullock seems to me to be the type of person we need more of in town government — the kind of person who works quietly and effectively to get things done.

I hope other Town Meeting members will join me in supporting John Bullock for Selectman on March 5.

Sincerely,
Frederick L. Bloodworth

While dreaming about the brighter future of Boston, there's no harm in wishfully envisioning an MTA system triple its present size and profitable, too!

That Man About Town

By MAT

We liked last week's "Under The State House Dome" column, a weekly Advocate feature, which advised House Speaker John Thompson to remember an adage of ancient Chinese War Lords — "never destroy the last bridge over which the enemy can retreat" (or else he's liable to turn at bay and whup ya).

He was talking about Thompson's threat to call Rep. Harrison Chadwick (R) on the carpet for his recent charges. The column implied that Chadwick knows even more than he has revealed about alleged corruption in high places and is just waiting for the opportunity to spill it.

As we hear it, Bob Porteus is determined to run for Moderator vs incumbent Larry Corcoran. It will be an interesting race — to put it mildly.

Definite candidates for Selectman John O. Parker's to-be-vacated spot are John W. Bullock, Charles R. Kent and Thomas (Again) Rawson — strong Dems all. Paul Campbell has papers out and will probably file.

For the R's, there is already Chris Cammarata. Another VERY possible one will be William A. Barnstead, a wheel on the Repub. Town committee and a candidate last year.

Under this set-up, everybody is going to chop everybody up! 3300 to 3600 votes could win. Who's got 'em?

Franklin "Pud" Hurd may run for Assessor but we doubt it. We think he'll wait for the State Rep fight in the fall. On the other hand, he might take on

To the editor,

I would prefer to be anonymous in this communication.

How proud we Arlingtonians should be of our Assistant Sup't Charles Caruth and Superintendent Doherty!

What an attractive spot was our Center Post Office this year! The Christmas decorations made one feel that the two men at the helm really cared. Through their efforts and leadership many carriers and workers contributed to the costs and the work of the decorations.

Did our citizens observe the cleanliness and attractiveness of the writing desks? The cleanliness of the floors inside and the grounds outside was outstanding.

Other neighboring post office buildings could well pattern after our Arlington Center Post Office building. Add to all this the friendliness and the efficiency of all postal workers.

Sincerely,
M. K.

CEYLON DANCERS

Boston theatregoers will soon see an exotic dance group hailed throughout the world. The National Dancers of Ceylon will give their only N.E. performance in Kresge Auditorium, M.I.T. Cambridge, at 8:30, Friday, January 26. They are sponsored by The Boston Council of the Experiment in International Living.

Unique even in the Orient, the ancient art of Ceylon is a combination of dance, music and mime. The Ceylon National Dancers, brought together in 1947, have been trained by the celebrated dance genius Guneywa who remains their Talaguru (teacher). This is the company's first transcontinental tour.

One of our lady friends who is an enthusiastic supporter of the Symmes Hospital wants us to tell our readers that the hospital is not nearly so inaccessible as people imagine. She said she reached the hospital on Sunday in eighteen minutes. She took the electric car from Water st. to Grove and then walked the rest of the distance.

The Town of Arlington held a special meeting Monday to consider a communication received from the Misses Robbins tendering the gift of a Town House, costing around $200,000 together with provisions for laying out the site for such on land owned by the town on the corner of Mass. avenue and Academy street.

To the editor, Arlington's lovely beauty spot is the setting for our half-million dollar Boys Club. When seen from across the Pond the building is ugly. No sense of proportion nor symmetry helps to integrate felicitously the huge structure in the sinuous shoreline and gently sloping hills.

I urge the officers of the club to cover up their artistic neglect with some landscaping.

I am shocked that we have not shown consideration for the natural beauty of that area. Money has been plentiful and parents have been eager; but the aesthetic link was missing in the chain of preparatory steps. This lack is to be regretted because we want our children to be happy.

For this cherished purpose we must keep Arlington the pleasant residential town it has been handed down to us. Its location halfway between Boston and historical Concord adds to our responsibility to preserve and transmit our heritage of natural beauty to future generations.

A sensible way to achieve this purpose has been opened to us four years ago by an enabling law of the Commonwealth.

Arlington can if we so desire form its own Conservation Commission which is to serve as an advisory and co-ordinating agency for the protection of our natural beauty in Town.

Yours sincerely, Herbert M. Meyer 276 Mass. ave.

Arlington High Graduate
Now Studying in Mexico

Mrs. Lois Ann Sanchez Navarro of Arlington, is attending Mexico City College in the federal district of the Republic of Mexico. She is enrolled in the only liberal arts college in Latin America where classes are taught in English and credits are transferable to and from colleges and universities in the United States. Mexico City College operates on the quarter system, gives the B.A. and M.A. degrees and is fully accredited through membership in the Southern Ass'n of Colleges and Secondary schools in the United States.

Mrs. Sanchez Navarro, in going to college abroad, is having the experience of getting new perspectives so important to the individual student and the United States as a whole. By studying in Mexico she is gaining an understanding of people and customs of another land and fluency in a foreign language, characteristics which have come to signify an educated man or woman.

Most MCC students reside in downtown Mexico City, and many live in college-approved Mexican homes, combining classroom studies with everyday Spanish. Students usually take courses in Spanish at MCC as an aid to understanding Latin America, though the language is not a required subject.

Mexico's heritage begins long before the conquest by Cortes, before the Aztecs, and perhaps begins 15,000 years ago when man first hunted on the plateau of Mexico. In the search for knowledge, the future begins with the past and Mexico's culture is a living example of today and yesterday.

The cosmopolitan city of Mexico offers a wide variety of interests. The monuments, palaces and fountains rival Europe's finest. Old and cherished colonial architecture is a contrast to ultra-modern skyscrapers, and the famous boulevard, Paseo de la Reforma, planned by the Emperor Maximilian, is rich in beauty and history.

Mrs. Sanchez Navarro, has accepted the challenge of a new and stimulating environment which has roots reaching from the nameless peoples of antiquity. Benefiting from an interchange of ideas and skills, she will return home not only enriched by her experience, but also with the satisfaction of having made a contribution to international understanding and education.

Mrs. Sanchez Navarro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Toebes, is a 1956 graduate of Arlington High school and previously attended Northeastern University in Boston.

Morgan Memorial
Needs Clothing.

An urgent emergency appeal for warm clothing and repairable household articles to help diminish suffering among underprivileged people and prevent a seasonal lay-off among handicapped workers at Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries was made recently by Goodwill officials.

Henry E. Helms, executive secretary, pointed out that more than eleven hundred filled Goodwill bags are needed each day to keep some 450 handicapped workers employed at jobs which make them financially independent of charity and trains them in new skills for business and industry.

The Goodwill executive stressed that there is dire need of clothing, blankets, household articles, pots and pans, books, small electrical and kitchen appliances and shoes.

"Many people are suffering from the winter cold and hardships will be increased unless we can help those who are in need."

"We have about 450 handicapped people working daily at Goodwill Industries, many of whom cannot find employment elsewhere and are reluctant to accept public charity."

"The revenue from the sale of these repaired items and clothing will pay up to eighty percent of the total operating costs at Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries," he said.

Friends of Goodwill may deposit many items at any one of more than 196 Goodwill Collection Boxes at Supermarkets in Greater Boston, or by telephoning, or by mailing a post card, which will bring one of the fleet of thirty Goodwill trucks to the home.

The Goodwill Industry plan started in Boston and has spread to 125 U.S. cities and more than 17 foreign lands.

Sales To Japan

Massachusetts' sales of $23 million, composed chiefly of machinery and metal scrap, made it the seventeenth leading state in exports to Japan in 1960. Exports to Japan provided employment for 2,330 residents of Massachusetts, including direct production workers, suppliers and service personnel.

These were among the conclusions of an exhaustive survey just released by the U.S.-Japan Trade Council of the state-by-state benefits of U.S. trade with Japan.

"Japan's pre-eminence as a customer of the U.S. is widely known," said the Council. "Less widely known is the commodity makeup of these Japanese purchases, and practically unknown is the contribution they make to the prosperity of the various states and regions of the U.S."

The Council estimated that total U.S. sales to Japan in 1960 of $1.3 billion provided employment to 190,000 Americans. The U.S. has exported more to Japan over the last five year period than to any other country except Canada, the report stated.

In 1960, exports of $1.3 billion and imports of $1.1 billion left the U.S. with a surplus of $200 million in its trade with Japan. In 1961, estimated exports of $1.7 billion with imports remaining at the 1960 level will give the U.S. a favorable trade balance of over $600 million.

Principal commodities shipped by Massachusetts to Japan in 1960 included: machinery, $10 million; machine tools, $4 million; metal scrap, $7 million; chemicals, $3 million; agricultural products, $1 million.

Massachusetts machine tools manufacturers supplied 7% of Japan's total U.S. purchases of this commodity, and Japan is the best foreign customer for metal scrap originating in Massachusetts.

The U.S. may well anticipate an export market of at least $3 billion in Japan by 1970, said the Council survey. This will mean substantial increases in sales and jobs for every state in the nation.

It is evident, the survey concluded, that if Japan is to continue its growing consumption of American products, the U.S. must be prepared to absorb larger quantities of imports from Japan.

LESS ON PART-TIME

One out of every five pupils at Arlington High is holding down some kind of part-time job while attending school. It is revealed by a study made recently by the guidance department.

This is the smallest number, 452, since 1958, and the smallest percentage since a study was first made in 1956. Part of the decrease in percentage can undoubtedly be attributed to the fact that the ninth grade is now included in the figures and few of these pupils have jobs.

Hours worked varied anywhere from a few hours a week to 44 hours, and the average was 17.5, with an average weekly salary of just over $18. The total income of those who worked was over $8100.

About 20 percent of the students worked under 10 hours a week; nearly 40% worked from 10 to 20 hours, 29% worked from 20 to 30 hours, nearly five% worked 30 to 40 hours, and 3% were trying to work over 40 hours a week and were kept up with school work.

PULPIT EXCHANGE

Each year the Protestant Ministers of Arlington exchange pulpits. This exchange will take place next Sunday.

The following churches will hear these ministers: Trinity Baptist, Rev. William Lewis; First Baptist, Rev. Guy Meyer; Pleasant Street Congregational, Rev. Lewis Williamson; Park Avenue Congregational, Rev. Robert C. Mezzoff; Calvary Methodist, Rev. Emmet E. Eklund; Heights Methodist, Rev. Robert E. Slaughter; First Unitarian, Rev. Dr. Stuart Haskins; First Universalist, Rev. James Daniels; and St. Paul's Lutheran, Rev. Wilbur Canaday.

Attendance and interest is always high in each of the Protestant churches on the annual Pulpit Exchange Sunday which is sponsored by the Arlington Ministerial Ass'n.

FOR SICK ANIMALS

The Administrator of the Mass. S.P.C.A.'s Angell Memorial Animal Hospital in Boston, has asked for a generous response to the appeal being made for clean cloth and discarded blankets needed in the care of the sick and injured animals at the hospital.

It is suggested that all old blankets that have been replaced by Christmas gifts and those that are due to be discarded during spring cleaning be sent to the hospital.

Cloth and blankets may be sent direct to the hospital. All who answer the appeal are invited to visit the hospital and see how the blankets and material are used.

THANKS EMPLOYEES

A note has been received from the Globe Santa acknowledging the recent contribution made by the Arlington Municipal Employees Ass'n to this cause.

The employees can truly feel that they had some small part in helping those less fortunate during the most holy season of the year when "it is more blessed to give than receive."

First Library

Arlington as the first place in the country to establish a children's library was recalled recently by Judith E. Stromdahl, writing in Horn Book magazine. The Robbins Library head librarian said that in 1833 Dr. Ebenezer Learned gave the town $100 for the establishment of a juvenile library.

Miss Stromdahl, continuing in the article, said that Alice M. Jordan, former Boston Public Library children's librarian, attended the 100th anniversary of Robbins Library and at that time told of Dr. Learned's gift.

Indebted to Miss Jordan for her guidance, Miss Stromdahl said that she first knew the "wise" and "kind" lady when working in her early years at the B.P.L.

Plans Rossini

When the Goldovsky Opera Theater opens its Rossini Festival, in a presentation of the New England Opera Theater, Inc., in English, at the Wilbur Theatre on Jan. 31, it will mark its 16th consecutive winter season making it the oldest continuous opera company in Boston's history.

Boris Goldovsky, will present two Rossini comedies, "The Barber of Seville," Jan. 31, Feb. 2, 3; and the operatic rarity, "The Turk in Italy," Feb. 7, 9, 10.

The Goldovsky Opera Theater has just returned from its seventh national tour in which it played 54 cities in 10 weeks before more than 125,000 persons. But, Goldovsky says he won't be satisfied until the ten week tour has been extended to twenty-five.

The operatic rarity, "The Turk in Italy," last presented here in 1948, introducing Adele Addison to Boston for her first appearance with a major opera company, and which will be performed at the Walbur Theatre, is a story all its own.

This new version of "The Turk in Italy" owes its existence to the Berkshire Music Center. If it weren't for the inspiration of the late Dr. Serge Koussevitzky and the extraordinary opportunities offered by the opera department of Tanglewood, the revival of "The Turk" would have remained in the category of unfulfilled dreams, Goldovsky recalled. "The music is largely left intact, but the plot on the other hand has been subjected to a drastic revision which brings the story closer to the present day audiences."

Two debuts and a visit by a singer from a hit Broadway musical will feature the presentation of "The Turk in Italy." Junetta Jones, young Baltimore Negro singer, with an exceptional soprano voice, will be making her debut as the Gypsy girl, Zaida. Eric Davis, young Denver tenor, will be making his operatic bow as Narciso, the fatuous lover.

Entrants will have a chance to appear on TV's "Championship Bridge With Charles Goren."

The largest bridge competition in history, the tournament is open to any local bridge group of 8 pairs or 16 members.

There is no charge for entry. Players who belong to a regular club can enter with their regular members and play seven qualifying rounds at their regular meetings. Or a player may organize a group of 8 pairs and set meeting nights for tournament play. Deadline for entries is midnight, January 14, 1962.

In charge of registration is Forrest Maddix, 2 Easton st., Brookline.

At the suggestion of President Tallman, a discussion of the King Anderson Medical Bill, H. 422, S. 909 was discussed. This is the President's plan for medical care for the aged, under social security. A show of hands disclosed a 50-50 pro and con reaction to the bill.

The Hart and Foster travel service with offices at 312 Massachusetts ave., presented colored movies of a West Indies cruise. The Islands of St. Thomas, Aruba, Grenada, Jamaica and Nassau were "visited". Not the least of the charm of the trip, was the gay life on ship.

ARLINGTON

LEGS CROSSED FOR LUCK, Bill Grannan drives for another two points in a losing cause. Grannan hit for 19 as Arlington was beaten, 76-41, by an undefeated Rindge Tech team. Arlington is now 3-3.

ONCE OVER LIGHTLY

By Tim Simms
Scoring three times in the second period, Arlington bombed Waltham 5-1, Saturday. Alan Kierstead scored twice and Peter Lax contributed a goal and two assists.

Lax has really come in the last three games for Arlington. Lately he has provided the drive that is expected of a co-captain. Arlington had 25 shots on net versus Waltham and 14 were off. Quite a show of fireworks and firepower. Arlington is a team that will shoot, and if a team shoots often enough, the puck has to go in.

Joe O'Brien and Dick DeCaprio played, although under the handicap of sickness. They both took their regular turns on the ice.

Bill Grannan has scored 74 points in his last three games, an average of almost 25 per. He exhibits a good drive and has a quick jumper from inside. Besides his offensive ability, Grannan is a ballhawk. In the Rindge Tech game alone, he harassed and stole several passes under the Arlington basket.

The track team really got in its licks against North Quincy. After losing to powerful Natick in its inaugural meet, the Red and Gray showed their heels to No. Quincy, 46-31.

Bob Goodenough is the top scorer for the team accumulating two first in the high jump, and a first and second in the hurdles. Watch Bill Lewis and Bob Kelley, they are two of the quickest in the 300 and 600 yard runs. With the season but two meets old, Lewis has done 37.3s for the 300 and Kelley has run the 600 in 1:24.2s.

REMEMBER WHEN?
Do you remember the great play of Harry Howell, all-scholastic defenseman from Arlington. He played with Charlie Chisholm, Paul Aiken, and Tom Apprille, Howell is now at Harvard under Coach Cooney Weiland.

Howell, in his sophomore year, earned all-East and all-Ivy recognition. Now in his junior year, Howell recently made the swing through the West with the hockey squad facing such opponents as Colorado and Minnesota. Weiland commenting on his play, "it did him a world of good. He speeded up his play in his own defensive zone and this will improve our attack when the Ivy League race gets under way."

Harry, although 6-3 and 195, is not a great body checker. He prefers to use his stick and sweep the puck away. Not only is he great on defense but probably his forte is his ability to rush with the puck when no other men are free to take a pass.

HERE AND ALLO
Goalie Joe Allosso has made a real comeback and although not on a par with the efforts of Don Mason of Newton and John Walsh of Cambridge Latin, Allosso is definitely a comer. He is only a junior and as the season progresses, he will improve.

It will be interesting to see what happens when Arlington and Belmont tangle in track. It could result in a triple tie for Division II. If Arlington knocks off Belmont and Belmont in turn beats Natick, a three-way deadlock would develop.

Look out for Somerville at the Arena, Saturday. They are looking for revenge for the 7-0 shellacking administered by Arlington in their last meeting. Arlington should be in for a rough game.

Brockton and Brookline should present the last roadblocks for Arlington basketball in January. They are among the tops in the league and if Arlington upsets either of these teams, it will come as a surprise to this corner.

Percy Schwartz says: Bob Goodenough (Goodenough) is god enough for any high school team.

Collins —

ed slides of the proposed school he was literally laughed down. And people continued to laugh and laugh at this incongruous proposal until Mr. Birch turned over the first spadeful of soil.

Today we have a beautiful building, and a fine recreational area in the rear. And the thought occurs that the citizens who are opposed to the erection of apartments near their homes should be thankful they still will be able to live there. Be also happy that another very stubborn Englishman with a real British accent doesn't come along and suggest the razing of your homes for some Town project.

The names of the families that were evicted sounded like the inspiration for the song Bing Crosby sings, namely Donegal, the Merrigans, Cado-gans, Spencer, Burns, McCarthys, McMullins, O'Learys, Coughlins, and Hurleys.

And it might be added that none of those evicted as delicious a British accent as Mr. Birch.

ARE YOU READY FOR THE TIDE?

A man who wished to sail out to sea, built a small boat, and he placed it on the river bank. "When the tide comes in," he said "I will lower my boat into the water and sail out to sea".

Presently the tide started coming in, but it was still rather low. "I had better wait," said the man. "When the tide is high, I can easily launch my boat."

Gradually the tide rose higher, but the man insisted that it was still not high enough.

"At high tide," he said, "I will lower my boat into the water." When he said this, he moved his boat a little further up the river bank.

As the tide rose, the man kept moving his boat further and further up the bank, until he had moved it onto a small hill.

At last he sighed, "This is no time to launch a boat. The water is too high."
